1. On September 1, 2022, Homeland Security Investigations in McAllen, Texas, (HSI McAllen) received a request for investigative assistance as part of an ongoing investigation from the Robstown Police Department in Robstown, Texas. Nueces County law enforcement officers detained Luis Abraham Martinez (hereinafter MARTINEZ), a citizen of the United States, the driver and sole occupant of a passenger car, while traveling southbound on US Highway 77 in Nueces County, Texas.
2. MARTINEZ was stopped on US Highway 77 for committing a traffic violation. During the course of the traffic stop, MARTINEZ consented to a search of the vehicle.
3. A subsequent search of the vehicle revealed two packages of a substance which weighed approximately 1.5 kilograms were located concealed within an aftermarket constructed concealed compartment in the rear bumper area of the vehicle. The substance inside the packages field tested presumptive positive for the properties and characteristics of methamphetamine. A plastic bag containing a large sum of United States currency, estimated to be in excess of $10,000.00 was located concealed within the door of the vehicle.
4. As part of an ongoing investigation, a HSI SA from McAllen, Texas responded to assist in the investigation. The HSI Special Agent (SA) interviewed MARTINEZ who stated he was hired by an unknown person in Mexico to transport US currency from the United States into Mexico. MARTINEZ stated he expected to be paid for the smuggling event. MARTINEZ stated he had smuggled currency from the United States into Mexico on two previous occasions within the last three months. MARTINEZ stated he knew the currency reporting requirements upon departing the United States into Mexico, and he had never reported the currency and did not intend to report the currency on today's date. MARTINEZ stated he knew the currency concealed within the vehicle were proceeds from distribution quantities of illicit controlled substances. MARTINEZ stated he intended on transporting the US currency into Mexico on today's date through the Hidalgo Port of Entry in Hidalgo, Texas. MARTINEZ claimed he was not aware he would be transporting drugs, only drug proceeds.
